

FRIDAY FLYER

Friday 27th February 2015

Headteacher's Message

A warm welcome back to everyone. Walking around all the classes this week, I was impressed to see how the class library areas are transforming.

Staff have been working hard to develop these areas and I know many of our pupils were excited to see (and start reading) all the new books delivered to each classroom.

Our teachers have been set a deadline to have their amazing class libraries ready and our School Council will be awarding winners from KS1 and KS2.

I hope you can all see that reading is very important at Garfield. I thank you for your continued support by ensuring your child reads daily and more.

Wishing you a happy weekend.

Ms Karen Khwaja

Parent Governor Elections Coming Soon at Garfield

New Build Update

On Thursday we were very excited to see the delivery of our modular units for our new school. Some pupils were able to see the crane carry the modular units into their positions. Many classes will be going out and seeing the modular units ar-

COMIC RELIEF

Thank you for your great work on raising so much money already for Comic Relief. Please keep it coming in. We are looking forward to beating our total from 2 years ago. The class that raises the most money will get a great prize.

School Uniform

Helping Hands will soon be selling second hand uniform that has been left in lost property. If your child has lost any part of their uniform, please check the lost property area outside the welfare room before it is taken for the sale.

Thank you.
