

Knowledge Organiser—Year 2

How is Britain different to India?

Vocabulary

Britain — The name of the largest island in the British isles.

India—A country in South Asia.

Spices—Seeds, fruit, root, bark or other plant substances used for flavouring.

Ocean—A body of water that covers a lot of the Earth.

Continent—A large solid area of land.

Atlas—A collection of maps which are in a form of a book.

Coast—The area where the sea and the land meets.

Forest—A piece of land with any trees. Many animals need forests to survive.

Contrast—Something that is different from another thing. A difference between two places.

Mountain—Higher and steeper than a hill. They are made from rocks and earth.

Terrain—Land or ground, or the natural characteristics of its surface.

Climate—Is the average measurement of temperature, wind, humidity, snow and rain in a place over time.

Map of India

Flag of India

Taj Mahal

Key Facts

The earth has seven continents they are: Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Europe and Australia.

The earth has five oceans: Atlantic, Pacific, Indian, Arctic and Southern oceans.

The coasts of the world measure about 193,000 miles in total. Coastal areas are also known as shores and sea sides.

India is part of the continent Asia. The United Kingdom is part of Europe.

The capital of India is New Delhi.

Hindi is the main language of India, as well as English! India is the second largest English speaking country in the world.

The tallest mountain in the world is Mount Everest, located in Nepal which borders with India.

There are 1.380,004,385 people in India to date. This is the world's largest population. There are 67,820,883 people in Britain to date.

India is the seventh largest country in the world.

London has more Indian restaurants than Mumbai or Delhi.

Bollywood films are made in India and include lots of singing and dancing.

The Taj Mahal is located in Agra in India. Thousands of people visit the Taj Mahal everyday.